Sarah worked on math this morning. She used with her cuisenaire rods to help solve her word problems. Next, she practiced memorizing Surah Al Fil for one hour.

Sarah then took a break from her school work and went outside to run around the yard and play soccer, masha Allah. She went on a nature walk around the yard and found snails in the drain behind her house. She discussed the living requirements for a snail and what they like to eat with her mother.

After lunch, she offered salaah and listened to several books that her mother read to her. She also practiced reading on her own.

Next, she engaged in a painting project in the kitchen and then helped her mother tidy up the kitchen. She also helped her mother prepare a spaghetti dinner, alhamdulillah.

Before dinner, she cleaned her room and prepared for dinner. After dinner, her father helped her with Arabic and they read from the Qur'an, masha Allah.
