

Lesson 6: Conditions of Prayers

Reading/Listening

1. Read lesson six of the text.
2. Discuss with student:

"A condition is something that is required before the commencement of prayer in order for it to be valid."

From translation of The Conditions, Pillars and Requirements of the Prayer, by Imaam Muhammad bin 'Abdil-Wahhaab

3. Listen to audio: 25- Important Lessons - Chapter 6 - Conditions of Salaat

Task 1

Discuss each condition and how to attain it, if applicable and,

- Have each student make wudhu in your presence to insure that student knows how to correctly make wudhu.
- Review what student wears to pray, is it appropriate?
- Review how to pray in shoes (look at bottom to determine if there are impurities which would invalidate prayer).
- Make sure that student knows the qiblah in their prayer place/home.

Task 2

Make a poster showing the conditions of prayer and place it near your praying place at home.

Task 3

Using the first letter of each condition, come up with a phrase or sentence to help you remember the conditions while you are away from home.

Quraan
