

Lesson 15: Recitation in Different Prayers

1. Introduction:

Q: What did the Prophet (salla Allahu alayhi wa sallam) recite in his prayers?

2. Overview:

The material in this reading takes a look at some of the different ayaat/surahs that the Prophet (salla Allahu alayhi wa sallam) used to recite in different prayers. You will make a chart (insha Allah) based upon the information that you learn to serve as a reminder to vary your recitations.

3. Reading:

Read "Prophet's Prayer Described," section:

What He (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) Used To Recite In The Different Prayers (pages 29-39)

4. Terms to Know:

Find and write the following terms/phrases in Arabic in your notebook.

Mufassal
muawwdhatain
subh

5. Think about It!

- 🕌 Do you recite any of the same surahs mentioned for the different prayers in the book?
- 🕌 Do you always recite the same surahs in every prayer/rakaat? If so, try to vary your recitations.

6. Hifz (Memorize)

No hifz assignment for this lesson. Review former hifz assignments.

7. Apply!

Make a chart showing examples of surahs/ayaat that the Prophet (salla Allahu alayhi wa sallam) recited during the following prayers: Fajr, sunnahs before Fajr, Thuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha, Tahajjud, Witr, Jumuah, Eid

Hang the chart up near where you pray at home and use as a reminder.
